

JESUS, GOD'S HEAVENLY GIFT TO YOU

KENNETH COPELAND

DAY 1 – OPEN YOUR GIFT OF LOVE

God loves every person in the world, and He wants you to know His love for you (John 3:16-17). Open your heart and receive the gifts of God—Jesus, the Holy Spirit, righteousness, Redemption, blessings and healing.

STUDY IT

- As an act of His love, God wants to give you all good things (Luke 11:9-13).
- Jesus gave you the gift of being right with God.
 - You can reign in life through the power and authority of Jesus Christ (Romans 5:17).
- You have been reconciled to God; now share the good news of reconciliation with others (2 Corinthians 5:17-20).
- You are a new creation. The moment you receive Jesus into your heart, you are right with God (2 Corinthians 5:21).
- God loves everyone so much that He is always working to draw people to Himself.
 - Sin, sickness and poverty are not from the hand of God. It is all from Satan's horrible, terrible hatred for the human race.
- God is a good God, and He has increased you to His level of abundant life.
- You were born again of the Spirit of God, and you have God living within you.

Additional scriptures: Romans 5:6; Hebrews 13:8; 1 John 4:8-16

DAY 2 - RECEIVE THE GIFT OF JESUS

God has done everything needed; so you can have salvation, healing, deliverance, prosperity and the evidence of the gifts of the Holy Spirit. The work is done! The only thing left for you to do is to receive His gifts!

STUDY IT

- Jesus is the gift of God (John 3:16-17).
- Say this: "Jesus is the heavenly gift, and I receive that gift right now."
- It's certain that God will give His gift of love to you. All you have to do is believe and ask Him (Luke 11:9-13).
- Jesus is God's gift to the world.
 - Healings and miracles are the Church's method of advertising God's gift of Jesus.
- Jesus took upon Himself the sin of the world as His gift to mankind.
 - Jesus bore your sins, and you WERE healed (1 Peter 2:24).
 - Healing and deliverance from sickness, disease, weakness, pain, grief and sorrow are also part of God's love gift.

Additional scriptures: Isaiah 53:4-5; Matthew 8:16-17; Mark 6:5; Acts 2:1-4;
1 Corinthians 14:2

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Make this confession:

Jesus is God's gift to me! He lived on this earth as an example for me! He was made sin and died on the cross for me! He rose from the dead and defeated the devil for me! Jesus is alive forever and is present with me! I am blessed and highly favored! Thank You, Father God; and thank You, Jesus!

DAY 3 – JESUS, GOD'S GIFT TO YOU

God has given His Son as His gift to the world. Use your faith to activate what His love has already given. All you will ever need is in Jesus.

STUDY IT

- Jesus is the gift of God to the world.
- God laid the punishment for the curse on Jesus. As far as God is concerned, your forgiveness and healing are complete.
 - Healing belongs to you. If you “were” healed, then you “are” healed now (1 Peter 2:24).
 - A person can be healed even if he has not received Jesus as Savior and Lord.
 - It’s time for you to “unwrap” the healing gift. There are no strings attached. It is for you.
- Faith calls those things that do not exist, as though they already do (Romans 4:16-18).
- Believe the Scripture. With your words, worship and thank God for your healing, whether you see or feel it yet, or not.
- God promises blessings to all who believe and obey (Deuteronomy 28:1, 15, 27).
 - God promised blessings to the children of Abraham. You are a child of Abraham, because you believe like Abraham believed, by faith. Therefore, the blessings are also for you (Galatians 3:5-9).

Additional scriptures: John 3:16-18; Luke 11:9-13; Isaiah 53:4-5; Genesis 39:3;
Proverbs 10:22; Genesis 3; Romans 8:2; John 10:10

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Write one thing you need, and what God has said in His WORD that promises you He will supply that need.

DAY 4 – OPEN YOUR GIFT OF HEALING

It's up to you to receive the gift of healing by faith. Believe and speak that you are healed. Expect results. Jesus already did the hard part.

STUDY IT

- Jesus is the gift of God to you—receive Him today (John 3:16-18).
- When Jesus was whipped before His crucifixion, that's the moment you were healed (1 Peter 2:24).
- The curse that came on the earth because of Adam's sin is threefold: spiritual death, sickness and poverty (Deuteronomy 28).
 - Your Redemption from the curse (provided by God through the sacrifice of Jesus) is also threefold: life, healing and deliverance, and prosperity.
 - Jesus has opened all three areas to you. You must activate them with your faith.
- Christ has delivered you from the curse (Galatians 3:8-14).
 - The effects of the curse are all written in the permissive sense. Those things are not God's will, but are the result of actions people take (Romans 6:23).
- When you receive Jesus as Savior and Lord, you are "in Christ." That means you are also Abraham's descendant by faith and a joint heir of the promises of God (Galatians 3:29).

Additional scriptures: Philippians 2:8; Isaiah 45:7; Genesis 8:22; Ephesians 6:1-3;
Proverbs 22:7

MAKE IT PERSONAL

Make this confession every time you think of what's troubling you:

I am redeemed from the curse, so I am redeemed from this thing!

In the Name of Jesus I've been delivered from _____

_____.

DAY 5 – OPEN YOUR GIFT OF LIFE

Your belief and faith in Jesus' sacrifice gives you the right to be redeemed from the curse and to have authority. Jesus is ready to give you an abundant life (John 10:10-11)!

STUDY IT

- Jesus Christ has freed you from the curse that came on mankind through Adam's disobedience (Galatians 3:13-14).
- THE BLESSING of God and the curse both hinge on obedience to God's commandments.
 - The Old Testament reads as though God put the curse and destruction on people.
 - According to biblical scholar Dr. Robert Young, the verbs used for "put on," "brought" and "smite" in Hebrew are in the permissive sense, not the causative sense (Deuteronomy 28).
 - The curse and destruction are actually permitted by God according to man's choices of disobedience to His commandments.
- Jesus lived a perfect life before God, yet He took the curse as if He had sinned and broken every commandment.
- God wants you free from the oppression of the curse (Psalm 91; Isaiah 35:3-6).
- Read and believe the promises in the Bible. They will tell you how to eat, what to say, how to behave...so you can live 120 years and be satisfied (Genesis 6:3).

Additional scriptures: Galatians 3:29; Acts 10:38; Luke 13:11-16; Isaiah 53:5; 1 Peter 2:24; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Psalm 90:7-10; Exodus 14:11; Proverbs 3:16
